WOODBERY & LORD.

Who have for Sale, a Quantity of Kaſhaw's ſuperfine FLOUR, in Barrels.

LONDON, August 11.

THIS day the Lord Chancellor, the Speaker of the House of Commons, and sundry of the Members of each House, met at Westminster, pursuant to their last prorogation, and by Commission from his Majesty further prorogued both Houses to September 29.

The following is the true state of the gratuities bestowed by his Majesty on the gentlemen of the faculty who attended his Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester in his late illness in Italy; to Dr. Pringle, 2000l. to Mr. Addie, 1500l. and to Mr. Charlton, Household Surgeon to his Royal Highness, who has attended him in all his tours to the Continent, 200l. and a pension of 100l. per annum.

August 14. His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable William Earl of Dartmouth, to be one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, his Lordship was this day, by his Majesty's command, sworn one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State accordingly.

This day Sir Robert Murray Keith, Knight of the Bath, had the honour to kiss the King's hand, on being appointed his Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Court of Vienna.

The King has been pleased to appoint Ralph Woodford, Esq; late his Majesty's Resident with the Hanse Towns, to be his Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary at the Court of Copenhagen.

This day Horace St. Paul, Esq; had the honour to kiss the King's hand, upon being appointed his Majesty's Secretary to the Embassy at the Court of Versailles.

August 18. By the last letters from Italy we hear, that there has been another earthquake at Messina, which has done considerable damage.

Unhappy is that state or nation which cannot cure its own evils without the aid of foreigners: A hundred thousand mediators have ruined Poland.

It is reported, that, besides the Peerage already granted to Lord Hillsborough, his Lordship is to have a pension of fifteen hundred pounds per annum, on the Irish establishment.

The Earl of Dartmouth, who has succeeded Lord Hillsborough as Secretary of State to the American department, is reckoned, besides being a man of business, one of the most accomplished Noblemen in England, being a Doctor of the Civil Law, and Fellow of the Royal Society.

August 20. It is believed by some, that Lord Dartmouth's entrance into the Ministry, is only a prelude to other important changes; the names of Temple, Chatham, and Rockingham, being still frequently brought up at Court, as if they were at last to be permitted to serve this nation from distrust us.

The exact state of the Spanish marine, according to letters lately received from Madrid, is said to be as follows, viz. Seventeen ships of the line at Ferrol, thirteen of them rigged and in commission; thirteen at Carthagena, only eight in commission; twenty-nine at Cadiz, twenty-two in good order; no mention is made of frigates or men of war upon the stocks.

The late insurances on Dutch property bound to the East and West-Indies seem to intimate, that the cautious Hollanders are apprehensive of a speedy rupture among certain maritime powers.

August 22. We are credibly informed, it was through the favourable representation, and at the intercession of the Rev. Mr. Romaine, that Captain Jones has obtained his Majesty's respite during pleasure.

The Right Honourable Earl Bathurst, so created last week, was originally created Lord Bathurst, by her late Majesty Queen Anne in 1711, when twelve Peers were created the same day, of whom his Lordship is the only survivor.

We are informed that Lady Mary Hay, who was some months ago divorced from General Scott, was lately married in France to a young Scotch Nobleman now on his travels.

We hear from Berlin, that the Empress of Russia has suddenly recalled her Ambassador from that Court; on what account, is not publicly known.

Letters from Petersburgh say, that the Empress has recalled fifteen noblemen from their banishment in Siberia, four of whom had resided twenty years in that desart; but so great is the force of custom, that they were observed to shed tears at leaving it.

August 25. So great is the passion for lands on the Mississippi in North-America, that one petition only, now lying before the Privy Council, has 180 names to it, many of them persons of large fortunes, who are already sending to the neighbourhood of the Rhine and other parts of Germany for emigrants, which they are likely to collect in great numbers, from the poverty of those countries.

An officer of distinction says, he has sat down to tables on the banks of the Mississippi, consisting of two removes, with 18 dishes in each, and accompanied by a desert that could not be purchased in England for 20l.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint the following Captains of the corps of Engineers and Royal Regiment of Artillery, to be Majors in the army, viz. Captains, John Archer, George Watson, Harry Gordon, John Brewse, Hugh Debbieg, and Richard Dawson, of the corps of Engineers.

This morning a very respectable body of merchants, connected with the trade of the British colonies, waited upon the Right Honourable the Earl of Hillsborough with an address, in which they politely thanked him for the great attention which they had always received at his Board while he was Secretary of State for America. They also bore testimony to his Lordship's solicitude for the prosperity of the mother country and her dependencies; and concluded, that they should have felt his loss very severely, if the talents and integrity of his successor did not yield them an ample field of consolation.

It is generally thought by Lord Hillsborough's friends, his Lordship will not again take a public part in any branch of administration; and that he will in future principally reside at his estate in the North of Ireland, where he has the credit of being reckoned the best landlord, as well as one of the best friends (though for some years back no resident) to that kingdom.

They write from Paris, that the Royal Academy of Sciences there have elected Dr. Franklin, of Philadelphia, to fill the vacancy made among their foreign members by the death of Baron Van Swieten; and that the King has approved and confirmed their choice. There can be but eight of these foreign members by the constitution of the Academy; and as they are generally of the most distinguished names for science in the different parts of Europe, the honour of being enrolled among them is in higher estimation.

August 27. Should the settlement on the Ohio take place, no emigrants whatsoever are to be permitted from this country, except the actual proprietors.

An extra board is appointed to take cognizance of the Mississippi and Ohio schemes, at which the merits of both will be finally determined.

A pension of 3000l. per annum, which was settled lately on Sir Robert Murray Keith, his Majesty's Envoy at the Court of Copenhagen, was never asked or solicited in any manner by his Excellency, his Majesty having been most graciously pleased to bestow that mark of his Royal favour upon him, as a testimony how highly he esteemed his spirited conduct at the Court of Denmark.

Yesterday the Earl of Hillsborough set out for Ireland.

August 29. Orders are given for repairing all the fortifications on the north and west coasts of Ireland.

Orders were yesterday sent down to Chatham, for the ships that are fitted out there, to take their full complement of men on board immediately.

It is imagined by the late conduct of the Dutch that they have resolved to keep good faith with Britain, for the same wise reasons which determined their conduct on all occasions, viz. their interest.

A gentleman resident at Berlin writes to his friend in town, that the King of Prussia's health visibly declines daily, and that that active monarch begins now to feel the fatal consequences of having gained his fame only by the sword. Probably his successor on the throne will some time hence wish his Majesty had not added so many provinces to his dominions.

August 31. They write from Cork, that the Glorieux, a French man of war of 60 guns, was wrecked near Bantry Bay, and only the Captain and 40 of the crew were saved.

His Majesty's sloop Diligence, at Portsmouth, is put into commission, and Captain Davy appointed to command her.

The King-George, Curling, from South-Carolina, is arrived at Cowes, with the loss of her mainmast.

By letters from Liverpool we learn, that on Monday night last, when the Theatre Royal was extremely crowded, a sudden alarm of fire was spread among the audience, which, though very ill founded, (the lamps only having set fire to the oil in the tin pans between the stage and the orchestra) occasioned such a confusion among the spectators, that to several of them the most fatal consequences ensued; many ladies were thrown into fits, and one died of the fright. The people in the gallery finding it impossible to get out at the doors, were seized with a temporary frenzy, and many of them dropt from thence into the pit, by which many arms, legs, ribs, &c. were broken, and the midshipman of a sloop which lately arrived in the harbour, was trodden to death.

Her Majesty is perfectly recovered of her late indisposition, and on Saturday took an airing with the King about Hampton Court, &c.

A letter from the Hague, dated August 25, says, "Sir Joseph York arrived here this night, very late."

Extract of a Letter from Brighthelmstone, August 25.

"Captain Chapman, of the Industry Packet, who carried the Marquis de Brunoij de Monmartel, and Sir Richard Perrot, Bart. to Dieppe, brings advice, that the harvest in Normandy is chiefly housed, and that the ground has not been known to yield so plentiful a crop these many years. All accounts from the interior provinces of France give the greatest hopes of the best vintage this year which has happened in the memory of the oldest man."

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, August 21.

"M. de Thulemeyer, minister from the court of Berlin to this republic, had a conference the day before yesterday with the States-general; since which it is reported, that he delivered to their High-Mightinesses an answer from the King his master, to the complaints and representations which they had remitted to him some time ago, relative to the vexations and obstructions which the inhabitants of Cleves imposed on the Dutch ships which navigated on the Rhine (as formerly mentioned); but nothing of the contents of his Prussian Majesty's answer has yet transpired."

The Austrian infantry in the environs of Dantzick become more numerous every day; but the scarcity of forage has obliged General Haddick to disperse his cavalry in different places.

A rich ship, homeward-bound from the Bay of All Saints, is taken by the mutinous garrison who deserted from a fort in the Brazils; it is supposed that they destroyed the Captain and the crew, and are of sufficient force to do much mischief.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, August 29.

Orders for the Court's going into mourning on Thursday next the 3d of September, for her late Serene Highness Frederica-Albertina, Princess of Brunswick Bevern, Abbess of Steternburg, viz.

The ladies to wear black silk or velvet, coloured ribbons, fans and tippets; or plain white, or white and gold, or white and silver stuffs with black ribbons.

The men to wear black coats, and black, or plain white, or white and gold, or white and silver stuff waistcoats full trimmed, coloured swords and buckles.

And on Sunday the 6th of September, the Court to go out of mourning.

Thursday last the battalion of the Royal Train of Artillery, quartered at Greenwich for the purpose of the review on Black Heath by his Majesty, marched from thence for Chatham barracks. They were a very handsome corps of young men, who greatly attracted the notice of the young women of that town by their civil and polite behaviour; and during their stay got greatly into their good graces, insomuch that it is computed near 20 young lasses went off with them. The drums beat the march about two o'clock in the morning, at which early hour the young girls took the opportunity of leaving their beds, and slipped out unknown to their families, so that in one street near the church, where they kept a guard, there was not a servant-maid that was handsome to be found when the family got up, excepting two, who, being very handsome, and their mistresses have some suspicions, locked all the doors over night and secured the keys, to the great disappointment of the poor girls.

On Thursday afternoon a horse belonging to Mr. Durrant, of the Isle of Thanet, started from the gentlemen's stand on Barnham Downs, to run 20 miles within an hour, for 50 guineas, which he performed by going five times over the long four-mile course in 55 minutes and a quarter; on going the third time the rider had the misfortune to break a stirrup-leather, just as he was turning by the stand, and was obliged to have another saddle, which caused a delay of two minutes, and after he finished the fourth round (it being intimated to him the ground would be measured) he rode from the stand to the distance post, and in turning short round, rode against another man and horse so furiously that both horses and riders came to the ground, but luckily received no hurt; he mounted again and came back to the stand. The horse carried between 10 and 11 stone, and without any seeming violent fatigue, performed it in the time above-mentioned.

ST. JAMES'S, August 12. The King has been pleased to grant unto the Right Hon. Allen Lord Bathurst, and his issue male, the dignity of an Earl of the kingdom of Great-Britain, by the name, stile, and title of Earl Bathurst, of Bathurst in the county of Suffex.

The King has also been pleased to grant unto the Right Hon. Wills Hill Earl of Hillsborough in the kingdom of Ireland, and Lord Harwich Baron of Harwich in the county of Essex, and to his issue male, the dignities of Viscount and Earl of Great-Britain, by the names, stile, and titles of Viscount Fairford, and Earl of Hillsborough in the county of Gloucester.

[For more LONDON NEWS, see the last Page.]

PORTSMOUTH, August 13. Our most gracious Sovereign, by the advice of Lord Sandwich, and the other Lords of the Admiralty and Privy-Council, have ordered the following standing rules shall be strictly, and duly attended to, viz. That every shipwright, who has served a regular apprenticeship in the King's yard, and by any means gets hurt, so as to disable him from working, is to have 40l. a year, to be paid him quarterly; after thirty years labour, if they cannot work any longer, and bear a good character, they are entitled to the same annuity; the joiners the same; but the sail-makers and house-carpenters are to have 17l. and the blacksmiths and labourers 12l.

GOSPORT, September 5. Saturday the Britannia, of 110 guns, came out of dock, having received a thorough repair.---The Thunderer, going round to Woolwich, is in great forwardness: The crew have got in their guns, &c. and will soon be ready to sail. As soon as they arrive at Woolwich, Captain Toby is to command the Defiance (a new ship just launched) back to this port.---Tuesday the Boyne, Captain Burnet, arrived at Spithead, from Jamaica. On their passage home, they had the misfortune to lose one of their midshipmen, (Mr. Boothe, a young gentleman universally lamented) who, by a sudden roll of the ship, fell out of the fore chains; every attempt was used to save him, but unfortunately without success.---Lord Oliphant came home in the above ship as passenger; she has also brought home 100 invalids, from the Princess Amelia and other ships in the fleet. ---Thursday the Hawke schooner arrived at Spithead, from Jamaica. She left Jamaica the 6th of July, in company with the Boyne; and the Modeste, Captain Wheelock, with the Egmont schooner, were to sail for England in about three weeks after their departure.---Wednesday the Terrible was paid six months wages.---Remain at Spithead, eight guardships, and the Rainbow, Weazle, Boyne, Glory, and Cruiser.

DUBLIN, August 29. A few days ago was married at Sligo, William Mooney, tobacco-spinner, aged 18, to the Widow Vincent, aged 105.

PARIS, August 14. It was asserted yesterday, that the Marquis de Fleury, eldest son of the Duke de Fleury, died a few days ago at Nancy, of the wound he received from an officer in Schomberg's dragoons, in the duel they fought lately, and in which the latter was killed.

BERLIN, August 8. There is the finest appearance of all sorts of grain that has been known in this country for many years, and as the weather continues fair, it is hoped the harvest will be very plentiful.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 13. The havock made by the pestilence in this city and its suburbs encreases daily.

COPENHAGEN, August 18. The harvest is begun every where, and is so very plentiful, that the price of corn is already fallen above a rix dollar per bushel.

August 22. By advices from Helsingbourg, in Sweden, we are informed, that the garrison of Christianstadt had revolted a few days before; that they had prevailed on the inhabitants of that town to join them; and that they had renounced all obedience to the different orders of the State. Prince Charles, the King of Sweden's brother, is in Scania, where he has assembled and put himself at the head of 4000 men, with which he is marching towards Christianstadt.

JASSY, July 20. Within these few days some inhabitants of this town died suddenly, but happily this accident was not followed by any other fatal consequences. In the mean time, the dread of the contagious distemper obliges the Nobles to keep themselves confined in their palaces, and many persons have retired to Bucharest, where more than eighty churches are filled with people who have retired into them for safety.

WARSAW, August 8. The Courts of Vienna, Petersburgh, and Berlin have resolved to hold at Konigsberg a second Congress, wherein the affairs and interests of Poland are to be settled; and the points which shall be agreed on, are to be sent to the Ministers Plenipotentiaries at the Congress near Fockzani, to be inserted in the articles of the peace negotiated there between Russia and the Porte. M. de Saldern is appointed Plenipotentiary from Russia to this new Congress; and the President Dombart and General Stufferheim will assist thereat in quality of Ministers from her Russian Majesty.

PARIS, August 17. The Ministry have given orders to fit out in all haste two flutes and three other ships, at Port l'Orient, and several artificers have been embarked on board these ships, which are destined for the Isle of France.

Our ships from the Isle of France having brought intelligence that the hurricane which ruined that colony the end of February last, had also destroyed the ships which were cruising near the Isles of Bourbon, Madagascar, &c. our Ministry have given orders to fit out immediately five ships of war for that station.

HAGUE, August 25. Yesterday morning her Royal Highness the Princess of Orange was safely delivered of a Prince.

BRUSSELS, August 25. We have had in this country the most plentiful harvest that has been known for these several years. The wheat, rye, and most part of the oats, are already got in, so that we may expect some diminution of the prices of grain in general, which has been augmenting for these seven years past.

ALTONA, August 22. The last letters from Stockholm confirm the news of a rebellion in Sweden. It first broke out at Christianstadt, where the inhabitants accuse the States of oppressing the people, and not using means to prevent the great scarcity of provisions. Their cry is, "One God, and one King." Being joined by the garrison, they have seized on the Arsenal, and confined several officers who refused to come into their measures. Our letters add, that at the departure of the post the gates of Christianstadt were shut, and that Prince Charles of Sweden was marching that way at the head of a regiment and some pieces of artillery.

NEWBERN, (North-Carolina) SEPTEMBER 11.

In our last we mentioned the severe storm we had here on the 2d instant, since which we have the following account of it from the Bar, viz. Fourteen sail of vessels were lying at Ocracock Bar when the gale came on, which was so violent that nine sail of them were forced on shore, and four sail more were drove over the bar, two of which were seen to sink, and the people all perish; though we since hear the Captain and a boy of one of them were taken up at sea on a raft.

From Core Sound we hear, that Core Banks in many places are for the most part washed away for many miles together, and the proprietors considerable sufferers in the loss of cattle, horses, sheep, and hogs. That joining Baker's Hammock, by Harbour-Island there is a narrow but deep inlet; and opposite Cedar-Island a considerable broad one, with many small ones between, some of them deep. That opposite to Hunting Quarter, where old Drum inlet used to be, an entire breach of near two miles is made through the banks: Against Nelson's bay, is another large inlet; and that the whole banks from Shackleford's point to Portsmouth, about fifty or sixty miles, where a carriage might have been driven with ease, is now cut through by near fifty inlets, some of them very deep; this, in all probability, will have some effect on the tide of this river, where before, by reason of the small quantity of water that could enter Ocracock Bar, during the tide of flood, the tides were interceptible, the water being expanded in the great sound within the bank; but by the addition of waters that must now enter these new inlets during the flood tides, a sensible difference in the tides may possibly be seen.

Captain Busbee, in the sloop Thomas, just arrived here from St. Martins, informs us, that off the Capes of Virginia, in about thirteen fathom water, he came through a drift of candles, apples, and other things, for near two miles, which must have been part of the cargoes of some northern vessels; and that to the northward of Cape-Hatteras, he saw four sail of vessels on shore.

SEPTEMBER 18. His Excellency Josiah Martin, Esq; Governor in chief, &c. &c. of this province, has issued a proclamation, dated at Hillsborough the 1st instant, notifying his Majesty's disallowance of an act of the General Assembly, passed in January 1771, and entitled, "An Act to encourage and support the establishment of a Post-Office in this Province."

"WHEREAS it hath been represented to me that the severe drought which hath greatly damaged, and in many places totally destroyed the crops of Indian corn now growing, and that if the exportation of wheat, rye, and flour, to the neighbouring provinces, which, according to my information, have suffered the same dreadful calamity, is not speedily prevented, the most alarming consequences may be felt by the inhabitants of this province: I have therefore thought fit, by and with the advice and consent of his Majesty's Council, to issue this proclamation, hereby strictly enjoining and prohibiting the exportation of wheat, rye, or flour made thereof, from any port or place within this province, to any of the neighbouring provinces, or parts beyond the seas, for the space of three months next ensuing the date hereof, of which his Majesty's officers of the Customs, and all other persons are to take notice, and govern themselves accordingly."

WILMINGTON, (North-Carolina) October 7.

We hear from Hillsborough, that his Excellency Governor Martin was gone from that town to Halifax, and has summoned the members of his Majesty's honourable council to meet at Newbern the 12th instant.

It is said his Excellency's intention is to prorogue the assembly to the 5th of January next.

From Salisbury we hear that at the Superior Court lately held there for that district, a woman, accused of murdering her husband, was tried and acquitted; several men were at the same time tried for horse-stealing, &c. two of whom were convicted, and afterwards pardoned.

Counterfeit forty shilling bills of the last emission of paper money, and counterfeit milled dollars are circulating in some parts of this province, but both bills and dollars it is said, are so badly executed, that the fraud is easily detected. It is also reported, that the printer of these counterfeit bills acknowledges it, but it did not appear that he had ever signed any of them, and that some others, supposed to be members of the ingenious society of counterfeiters, have given security for their appearance next March term.

CHARLES-TOWN District,)

OCTOBER SESSIONS, 1772.

IT IS ORDERED,

THAT the PRESENTMENTS of the GRAND JURY, be forthwith published in the several GAZETTES of this Province.

By the Court,
JAMES JOHNSTON, C. C. & P.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

The PRESENTMENTS of the GRAND JURY for this District of the Province, at a Court of General Sessions of the Peace, Oyer and Terminer, Assize and General Goal Delivery, begun and holden at Charles-Town, in Tuesday the 20th Day of October, 1772.

I. WE present, as a Grievance, the Number of Woollen Houses now built and building contrary to Law, particularly those on the Waives of Charles-Town.

II. We present, as a Grievance, the Proprietors of such Houses whose Chimnies are too small to admit of Sweepers up to them, as an Evil, which if not immediately remedied, might prove of the most destructive Consequence to the Inhabitants of Charles-Town.

III. We present, as a Grievance, the common Practice of firing Guns on the Eves of Christmas, and on the Mornings of the New-Years; by which Method, it is impossible to distinguish, whether such Firings are intended as Alarms to the Inhabitants, to prepare themselves against an internal or approaching Enemy, or to proclaim the illegal Mirth of a few inconsiderate People.

IV. We present, as a very dangerous Grievance, the Diversion of firing Squibs, Crackers, and other combustible Matters, in and about the Streets of Charles-Town, by which Means a House was lately set on Fire, but being in Time discovered, the dismal Consequences were happily prevented.

V. We present, as a Grievance, the public Violation of the Laws, by Draymen and Carters riding on their Carts and Drays.

VI. We likewise present, as a Grievance, that the same Violation of the Laws are, and have been too frequently committed, by the Servants of Gentlemen, and others, driving the Horses of their Masters, at the most unwarrantable Rates, by which Means the Lives of many are daily endangered; and sorry we are, to present in particular, the Coachman of his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, whose general Method of conducting Carriages has been too notorious, to pass unnoticed by us, the Grand Jurors of this District.

VII. We present, as a Grievance, the common Custom of feeding Horses and Cows in the Streets.

VIII. We present, as a Grievance, the general Practice of leaving at Nights large Quantities of Sheet Lead, Grapnels, Stones, and other Articles, on the Pavements of Streets, tending to obstruct that Safety and Ease which was intended for Foot Passengers.

IX. We present, as a Grievance, the Want of Public Drains, Lamps, Wells, and Pumps, in many Streets of this Town.

X. We present, as a Grievance, the great Increase of Dram Shops, within these few Years.

XI. We present, as a Grievance, the great Inattention of the Watch Company, with Regard to Negroes, and other disorderly Persons, assembling on Sundays, and other Holydays.

XII. We present, as a Grievance, from whose Source the many Evils which are committed, derive their Origin; we mean, from the Licences which are Annually granted to Watchmen, or their Wives, to keep Dram Shops, whereby it becomes their Interest to encourage Negroes, and others, to frequent their Houses, and consequently to protect such disorderly Persons in their Male-Practices.

XIII. We present, as a Grievance, the common Method of committing Persons to Goal, on the most trivial Accusations, and groundless Suspicions, by which Conduct the Liberties of the People are invaded, and the Expences of Government increased, of which Grievance, this present Session has given us most ample Proofs.

XIV. We present, as a Grievance of the first Magnitude, that neither the Laws of this Province, or the Statutes of Great-Britain now in Force, are as yet printed, or published in such a Manner as to be procured, by which Means, not only those, whose Duty and Station it is, to explain and to expound the Laws, must frequently meet with many Inconveniences, and great Difficulties, in the Execution of their Offices, but ultimately this general Defect must fall on the People themselves, particularly those whose Places of Abode are at the greatest Distance from this Metropolis.

XV. We present Thomas Lamboll, Esq; for keeping a Body of stagnated Water within his Lot on White-Point, by which Means numberless Insects are produced, rendering at the same Time the Inhabitants on the adjoining Lots very sickly, but particularly so to Mr. Robert Mackenzie, by keeping his Cellars very wet, at every heavy Rain: We likewise present the said Thomas Lamboll, for stopping a private Drain, which the said Robert Mackenzie had made, to lead off the said Body of Water into the Public Drain in King-Street; by the Information of the said Robert Mackenzie.

XVI. We present Mary Grant, living in Meeting-Street, for keeping a riotous and disorderly House; by the Information of John-Ernest Poyas.

XVII. We present Thomas Farr, sen. Esq; for Fencing in two Lots of Land in Charles-Town, Numbers 300 and 301, belonging to the Public; on the Information of William Hopton.

XVIII. We present Charles Elliott, Thomas Ferguson, Josiah Perry, Melcher Gardner, Francis Yonge, Isaac McPherson, George Haig, and Robert Rowand, Esquires, for not keeping (as Commissioners of the Parish of St. Paul) the Causeway, known by the Name of Wallace's Causeway, in proper Repair; by the Information of Richard Downes, and Michael Muckenfuss.

LASTLY, We recommend that these our Presentments may be published.

LONDON, SEPTEMBER 1.

A GENTLEMAN, treating of the abuſes of the company's ſervants in EAST-INDIA, makes the following obſervations: "The abuſes of the moſt ſerious nature are, the monopolies of rice and ſalt, which are real neceſſaries of life; of betle nut and tobacco, which, from their general uſe, are habitually ſo; of cotton, a raw material for the manufactories of the country; alterations in the current coinage; oppreſſions of foreign merchants, from whoſe trade there was continual influx of ſpecie; millions lavished in fortifications; a total want of oeconomy in all the different details of ſtores and proviſions for the army, the company's ſervants being the contractors without the ſmalleſt check over them; keeping back for years many official accounts, which ought to be tranſmitted home by every ſhip; obſtructions to the improvement of the filatures of ſilk; a total inattention to the choice of their muſlin inveſtments, &c. It will not appear exaggerated to thoſe who are in the leaſt acquainted with EAST-INDIA affairs, if the private fortunes brought from the EAST, ſince the acquiſition of the Dewannee in 1765, are ſtated at five millions. It is a well-known fact, that the company have paid two millions to the government, beſides at leaſt an equal ſum for the duties and exciſes on the increaſed trade from INDIA ſince the above period. The additional dividends to the proprietors may alſo be ſaid to derive from the poſſeſſion of the Dewannee."

Extract of a letter from an Engliſh gentleman in Paris, Auguſt 27.

"Within a few days near 2000 women of the town have been confined in different hoſpitals and priſons, when cured, deſtined for Corſica and the Weſt-India iſlands. The police have reſolved not to ſuffer any ladies of pleaſure in Paris, but what are acknowledged by ſome Abbeſs to be of her convent, and phyſicians are paid to viſit daily thoſe virtuous retreats."

By a gentleman juſt arrived from St. Brieux in Britanny, we are informed that the celebrated dramatic author, who lately abſconded for a deteſtable attempt, was found dead near Dol, by the monks of a monaſtery near that place. A conſiderable ſum of money found upon him, became the property of the Holy Fathers. It was ſaid, that he had poiſoned himſelf, and that ſome writings found cauſed the diſcovery.

It is confidently aſſerted (though it has the appearance of too good news to be true) that the court has reſolved to contract the number of places and penſions; a piece of oeconomy which muſt at the ſame time contract the power of our rulers.

A whiſper circulates round St. James's, that, in conſequence of the great riſe in all the neceſſaries of life, as well as in conſequence not only of his Majeſty's large family, but of the increaſe in civil employments which he is obliged to maintain, his allowance of 800,000l. will be made a million annually in the next ſeſſion of Parliament.

Lord North, we hear, intends being a Candidate for the Chancellorſhip of Oxford, on the demiſe of Lord Litchfield.

We hear that one houſe in this Capital remits half-yearly, eighty thouſand pounds, for the intereſt of money which the Dutch have in our funds.

A lady of quality (who is ranger of a park in the county of Kent) holds an office of five hundred pounds per annum, under the title of Sweeper of the Mall in St. James's Park.

Yeſterday a commiſſion paſſed the Great Seal, appointing the Lord Chancellor and the other Miniſters of State, together with William Earl of Dartmouth, Soame Jenyns, Edward Elliott, Lord Robert Spencer, George Greville, Bamber Gaſcoyne, William Jolliffe, Eſqrs. and Lord Garlies, to be Commiſſioners for promoting the trade of Great-Britain, and inſpecting and improving the plantations in America, and elſewhere, with a revocation of the laſt commiſſion.

Alſo paſſed the Great Seal, a reverſionary grant of the office of Secretary of his Majeſty's province of New-York, to William Knox, Eſq; during his life, on the death, or any ſooner determination of the intereſt therein, of George Clark, Eſq; the preſent Secretary.

Alſo paſſed the Seal, a proclamation, promiſing a reward of five hundred pounds for the diſcovering and apprehending any of the perſons concerned in burning the Gaſpee ſchooner in Providence-river, on the 10th of June laſt; alſo a further reward of five hundred pounds, and his Majeſty's pardon, to any of the offenders, for apprehending each of the ringleaders.

Richard Glynn, Eſq; ſon of Sir Richard Glynn, Bart. is appointed one of the Clerks in the Treaſury, vacant by death.

A report prevails at Portſmouth, that ſeveral ſhips of the line are going to be ſent to the Mediterranean.

Alexander Thomſon, Eſq; ſon of the late Mr. James Thomſon, of the Exciſe Office at Edinburgh, is appointed Collector of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms for the port of Savannah in Georgia.

SEPTEMBER 3. They write from Paris, that a great miſunderſtanding now ſubſiſts between that Court and RUSSIA.

An evening paper ſays, "Orders are come from the Court of Denmark to their agent here to pay to this Court 60,000l. which is the fortune given to Queen Carolina Matilda, and which the Court of Denmark have thought proper to return; alſo 20,000l. more, in conſideration of the preſents made to the Queen on her marriage with the King of Denmark. And it is added that the above ſums of money are to be appropriated for the future maintenance and ſupport of the Queen of Denmark, who, as ſoon as it is ſettled, is to come to reſide in ENGLAND."

A rich ſtomacher is making by an eminent jeweller at the weſt end of the town for a certain Ducheſs, the capital ſtone of which is worth 9000l. The whole ſtomacher is valued at 30,000l.

Yeſterday Mr. Sheriff Wilkes entertained at the Globe tavern, Fleet-ſtreet, the Common-Council of the ward of Farringdon Without, the Court of the Committee of City Lands, &c. Sheriff Bull, the Rev. Dr. Wilſon, Father of the City Clergy, Rev. Mr. Williamſon, &c. on occaſion of the handſelling of the ſilver cup, recommended by the Livery, and voted by the Common-Council. The cup is ſaid to be very elegant, and to do great honour to the ſeveral artiſts employed. It is reported that the baſs relief was deſigned by Mr. Wilkes. On the upper part of the cup, according to the ancient cuſtom, the City Arms, with the "Dagger" in the firſt quarter, are curiouſly embroſſed. Beneath is a noble baſs relief, very highly finiſhed, which ſeems to hint an idea of the meaning of the "Dagger," or "ſhort Sword," in the City Arms, different from what the antiquarians have hitherto ſuggeſted, either of the "Dagger," as alluding to that with which Sir William Walworth, a Lord Mayor of London in the time of Richard II. killed Wat Tyler; or, as others ſuppoſe, to the "ſhort Sword" of St. Paul. The ſubject of the baſs relief is the death of Julius Cæſar in the Roman Senate. He is repreſented gracefully covered with the toga fallen at the baſe of a pedeſtal, which ſupports a ſtatue of Pompey the Great. Brutus, Caſſius, and the other noble Romans, conſpirators for their country, form a circle round the body, their "Daggers" ſtill reeking with the tyrant's blood after the godlike ſtroke, raiſed to Heaven, but every eye fixed on Brutus, who is in the attitude of congratulating Cicero on the recovery of the Public Liberty, and pointing to the proſtrate and expiring uſurper. Beneath the baſs relief are the following words:

"May every tyrant fear
"The keen, deep ſtarchings of a Patriot's ſteel!"

CHURCHILL.

The figure of Brutus is particularly bold and ſtriking, and the reſt of the whole group. On the oppoſite ſide is an inſcription in an oval of oak leaves,

"The GIFT
Of
The CITY of LONDON
To
Alderman WILKES
1772."

Lord North being lately aſked, which way Mr. Wilkes's election to the mayoralty could be prevented, replied, that if it was a matter of the leaſt ſignification who was Mayor, there was a very obvious method of defeating his election. "How ſo," demanded a Great Perſonage. "Why Sir (returned the Miniſter) by ſending a letter into the city, deſiring our friends to ſupport him; for ſuch is the diſpoſition of the people, that they will even ſacrifice their own wiſhes, if they think ſuch a ſacrifice any way likely to oppoſe the views of government."

The mode of arreſting a celebrated Lady, now in the King's Bench priſon, is ſaid to be very whimſical: Two bailiffs, dreſſed very magnificently, went to ſee the houſe, which was conſtantly ſhewn to people of diſtinction; after walking about a long time, they affected a quarrel, and drew; the ſervants called for help; the Lady iſſued in a violent agitation from the apartments where ſhe was ſafely locked up, and one of the catchpoles telling her ſhe was his priſoner, terminated the frag, though little to her ſatisfaction.

Tueſday evening died, at his houſe at Layton, in Eſſex, in the 65th year of his age, Sir Robert Kite, Knt. Alderman of Lime-ſtreet Ward. He was unanimouſly choſen Alderman in the year 1756, upon the deceaſe of John Porter, Eſq; ſerved the office of Sheriff with Sir William Hart, in the year 1765, and ſucceeded to the Mayoralty in the year 1766; which high offices of dignity and truſt he diſcharged with the greateſt reputation and applauſe.

Friday died, at Hungerford, the Hon. Iſabella Montague, daughter of the Right Hon. Lord Beaulieu.

A letter from Hamburgh, dated Auguſt 25, ſays, "The day before yeſterday two couriers, diſpatched from Stockholm, paſſed through this city; ſince which it is no longer a ſecret here, that the four great cities of Sweden, viz. Chriſtianſtadt, Joenkioeping, Landſcrona, and Gottenburgh, have declared the King of Sweden their abſolute ſovereign. On the 13th of this month, Prince Charles put himſelf at the head of the troops and the militia of Landſcrona, and Prince Frederick Adolphus did the ſame at Gottenburgh. Theſe two Princes joined together and marched with their army, conſiſting of about ſixteen thouſand men, and encamped before the walls of Stockholm, declaring the King to be abſolute at every place in their march. On their arrival before Stockholm, they demanded their princely rights, which had been limited and oppoſed by the deputies of the ſtates, and inſiſted that they ſhould revoke the late act, called "The aſſurances of the King." The private letters received from thence, ſince that date, ſay, that his Majeſty kept himſelf cloſe at Stockholm till the army came before the walls, and then communicated his deſigns to the States; that a reſiſtance was made by a great part of the clergy and ſome of the nobles, but that they found themſelves obliged to diſcharge the King from his oath, and to declare him an abſolute ſovereign. The other two ſtates of the Burghers and Peaſants made not the leaſt reſiſtance."

A commiſſion of oyer and terminer yeſterday paſſed the great ſeal, authorizing and empowering certain perſons named therein, to try any perſon or perſons that may be taken in conſequence of the proclamation iſſued for apprehending any that were concerned in plundering and burning the Gaſpee ſchooner.

Yeſterday orders were ſent down to Plymouth, to prepare the York man of war of 60 guns, and the Brilliant of 56, for ſea immediately.

SEPTEMBER 5. A report was circulated yeſterday that certain advice had been received of the death of the King of Sardinia.

Orders are iſſued for manning and fitting out for ſea immediately, at Plymouth, the Shrewſbury of 74 guns, and the Argo of 28 guns.

The late John Calcraft, Eſq; was a phenomenon (amongſt a few others) of the preſent age. He commenced in life in the humble ſtation of a clerk, at the ſalary of about 40l. per ann. Being, after a little practice and experience, found very docile and tractable, he was by ſeveral gradations advanced, till he became under the auſpices of a celebrated Lord, an agent to many regiments, by the emoluments of which, and divers other participations in commiſſarial revenues, &c. he acquired, or rather created a fortune of near one million ſterling. His noble patron got, as the principal, a moſt incredible fortune; and their brokers raiſed conſiderable eſtates in their employ. Mr. Calcraft fell off from him to who he owed his all, avowed his independency, and became a moſt zealous patriot, by the body of whom he was received with open arms.

This morning two expreſſes were received at St. James's, one in haſte from Madrid, the other from a private Engliſh gentleman at Rome.

The ſame morning no leſs than four meſſengers were ſent off with diſpatches; one to Conſtantinople, one to Copenhagen, one to Vienna, and another to Verſailles.

Some new ſcheme, it is evident, is in agitation on the Continent, in which England is moſt immediately concerned. The powers who ſeem moſt to court her alliance are Poland, (as a monarchy) RUSSIA, and DENMARK. The latter, ſays a correſpondent, is the more remarkable, conſidering the late tranſactions at Copenhagen.

The political edifice, ſays a correſpondent, which has been rearing for a ſhort time paſt, by an union of the court and country parties (the Miniſtry and the Chatamites) is already broken to pieces and fallen to the ground.—This ſhews that the builders were but bungling workmen.

Within theſe few days orders have been given for twelve men of war of the line to be fitted for immediate ſervice.

It may be depended on as the reſolutions of the Admiralty Board, in conjunction with the Privy Council, that the ſquadrons in the Weſt-Indies, Newfoundland, and America, are to be augmented to thirty ſhips of the line; ſix ſhips are to be ſent to the Mediterranean, and eight more to the Eaſt-Indies.

Orders are iſſued for the officers belonging to the garriſons in Great-Britain and Ireland, to repair immediately to their reſpective ſtations.

A ſpy at Conſtantinople writes from thence, that ſome new political manœuvre is planning by the Porte, to be played off the enſuing ſpring. The Grand Seignior has not gone out for ſeveral days, and the foreign miniſters have daily conferences with him. Above all, Mr. Murray, the Engliſh Ambaſſador, is almoſt conſtantly at the Seraglio.

The unexpected revolution in Sweden is confidently aſſerted to be the deep-laid ſcheme of the King of PRUSSIA, to which he eaſily brought his nephew, the young King, to accede. The event of this plan has anſwered the ambitious projects of his PRUSSIAN Majeſty, who will now, in fact, from his influence over the youthful Monarch, reign in SWEDEN as powerfully as in his own country. The Swedes in the laſt war took part againſt PRUSSIA, by the power of the ſtates in oppoſition to the deſires of the old King; but, by this important political ſtroke, the cunning Frederick has ſecured himſelf from any ſuch circumſtance in any future war.

The following are the judges appointed in the commiſſion ſent to Newport, in Rhode-Iſland, who are to report their proceedings to his Majeſty, viz. Joſeph Wanton, Eſq; Governor of Rhode-Iſland; Daniel Horſmanden, Eſq; Chief Juſtice of the province of New-York; Frederick Smyth, Eſq; Chief Juſtice of the province of New-Jerſey; Peter Oliver, Eſq; Chief-Juſtice of the province of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, and Robert Auchmuty, Eſq; Judge of the Vice-Admiralty Court eſtabliſhed at Boſton. Any three of them are empowered to act.

His Majeſty has appointed Robert Chriſtian, Eſq; of Antigua, to be Judge of the Admiralty Court of the ſaid iſland.

Letters by yeſterday's French mail confirm, the report of a very great houſe having failed in Cadiz, to the amount of eight millions of dollars and upwards; that is to ſay, nearly two millions ſterling.

It is ſaid that a meaſure has been hit upon, to put an end to every ſpecies of Maccaroniſm for the future, by laughing it entirely out of countenance. Several perſons of fortune, ladies as well as gentlemen, are ſubſcribing a ſum to purchaſe a number of dreſſes in the higheſt Maccaroni taſte. Theſe are to be given to Chairmen, Porters, Carmen, Watermen, and other low people, who are to be handſomely paid for wearing them, not only in their ſeveral occupations, but in traverſing the Park, and other public places, arm in arm, in groupes. Some of the clubs for the Iriſh Chairman's hair, are made as thick as the wearer's legs; and all their other habiliments equally outre.

By letters from Peterſburgh we learn, that the greateſt expectations are formed on the diſcovery of a ſafe and practical navigation from the Coaſts of Kamſchatka to China and Japan; and that a company is already formed, under the immediate protection of the Empreſs, for the further proſecution of opening a communication and trade with that part of Aſia.

SEPTEMBER 7. Lord Harcourt's departure for Ireland is now fixed for the 6th of next month, if a total derangement of the preſent Miniſtry ſhould not take place then. But whoever may be appointed to ſucceed Lord Townſhend, it is ſaid his Majeſty has determined he ſhall receive the ſword of ſtate from that nobleman, as he is reſolved to have no more Lords Juſtices in that kingdom, as a ſource of faction and a means of keeping up an immediate intereſt, equally pernicious to that of Prince and people.

It is confidently aſſerted, that the SPANIARDS have filled their coffers, and have fifty men of war in their ports ready for immediate ſervice.

There are three RUSSIANS arrived here in the Queen EAST-INDIAman, who travelled on foot from RUSSIA to CANTON, through the deſarts of PERSIA, which is upwards of five thouſand miles. They were three months in going it; they ſeem to be very ſturdy fellows, and much uſed to hard labour.

Francis Hawley, Lord Hawley, Baron of Donaſmore, and Baronet, who died laſt week, was Lieutenant-Governor of Antigua, and ſucceeded his father Francis, the late and ſecond Lord, on May 30, 1743. He married Margaret, daughter of Thomas Tyrrel, Eſq; of the city of London, by whom he had iſſue one daughter, married in May, 1755, to John Brettle, Eſq.

An article in the Hague Gazette received laſt Saturday, dated Hamburgh, Auguſt 25, confirms the account of the four cities of Scania in Sweden, viz. Chriſtianſtadt, Joenkioping, Landſkrona, and Gottenburgh having proclaimed, on the 13th of Auguſt, the King of Sweden abſolute ſovereign; and of the ſupport given by Prince Charles and Prince Frederick Adolphus, in favour of that nomination, and adds the following particulars: "The King informed of theſe movements quitted Stockholm, went to Joenkioping, and put himſelf at the head of the troops and militia who had joined in his favour. This election was ſupported by the two orders of Burghers and Peaſants, at the dyet; but the two other orders having oppoſed it, the King by his wiſe meaſures and reſolution ſurmounted theſe oppoſitions, and hath been acknowledged ſovereign by all the orders of the kingdom; but all this did not paſs without ſome effuſion of blood."

An eminent Spaniſh houſe, which lately ſtopped payment, have reſumed their former trade.

Captain Cooper, of the New-Bleſſing, who is arrived in the Creek from Archangel, took up the crew of the Medina, Capt. Ratſey, who was loſt in the White Sea.

SEPTEMBER 8. Letters from Hamburgh ſay, "The revolt of the garriſon at Chriſtianſtadt, in SWEDEN, was looked on only as the ſignal for the more quietly calling the SWEDISH forces together under the command of the King's brothers, and by that means they the more eaſily effected their purpoſe in changing the form of government.

Yeſterday Mr. Fordyce arrived in town.

Her CZARINIAN Majeſty has been pleaſed to preſent Lord Cathcart with her picture ſet with diamonds, worth 8000 roubles.

It has been obſerved that the revolution which has juſt taken place in SWEDEN, has been effected with more ſecrecy, diſpatch, and leſs terror to the ſubjects, than thoſe which took place not long ſince in RUSSIA and DENMARK.

The King of POLAND wrote lately with his own hand to a certain Great Perſonage, begging the interpoſition of this kingdom in the preſent calamitous ſituation of that country; but anſwer was ſent back, that GREAT-BRITAIN would by no means embroil itſelf with continental affairs.

This morning one of his Majeſty's meſſengers was ſent off from St. James's, with diſpatches to COPENHAGEN and STOCKHOLM.

Admiral Rodney is, we hear, ſoon expected home from the Weſt-India ſtation, and Admiral Geary will, it is ſaid, be appointed to ſucceed him.

Orders have been lately iſſued from the War-Office for building ſeveral new forts on the banks of the river MISSISSIPPI.

The annals of EUROPE furniſh not an inſtance of ſo critical a juncture as the preſent. The ſword of war for a moment withheld in ſuſpence, whether to be ſheathed, or again embrued in the blood of the ſubjects of the two mighty empires of RUSSIA and TURKEY; the very extraordinary and intereſting proceedings of the courts of RUSSIA, AUSTRIA, and PRUSSIA, in regard to the unhappy kingdom of POLAND, threatening the diſmemberment of it; and the ſudden and important revolution in SWEDEN, whereby a power little leſs than abſolute, is given to a young and enterprizing prince; theſe events ſuggeſt ideas big with conſequences that, in a very ſhort time, may entirely deſtroy the balance of power, and, in a manner, leave not a natural feature in the face of EUROPE. Add to the above, that it is very probable, the Dowager Queen of DENMARK, availing herſelf of the commotion in SWEDEN, and the engagements of the other abovementioned powers, will alarm us with the news of another revolution, by cajoling the preſent puny monarch of his crown, in favour of her own ſon, and thus encreaſing the confuſion. No one doubts, that the inſtance of PETER III. is yet recent in her memory.

Nothing can ſave POLAND but the ſcene of her pſeudo-friends; for that only ſeems to reſtrain them from putting the coup de main to their atrocious deſigns.

We are credibly informed, that the meſſenger who brought the news of the revolution in SWEDEN to St. James's, brought alſo letters to the SWEDISH Ambaſſador, with inſtructions to negociate a new ſubſidiary treaty with the Court of LONDON, the King being deſirous to throw off his dependence on FRANCE, and to form his alliances with proteſtant powers only. Like inſtructions, it is ſaid, were diſpatched by his SWEDISH Majeſty to his miniſter at the Court of BERLIN; and it is imagined, that a new treaty of alliance, offenſive and defenſive, will ſpeedily take place between thoſe two powers.

Foreign politicians are in doubt whether the negociations of peace at FOCKZANI will terminate to the ſatisfaction of the belligerent powers. The TURKS are every where increaſing their armies, and the RUSSIANS have ſent freſh inſtructions to their commanders in the Mediterranean, to hold themſelves in readineſs to ſail on the firſt notice.

A merchant at LISBON writes to his correſpondent, by the laſt poſt, in the following words: "Some ſecret expedition is in agitation here. The Council frequently aſſembles, and holds very long debates, and an order is iſſued for taking an accurate ſurvey of all the warlike ſtores of this kingdom."

ST. JAMES'S, September 1. The King has been pleaſed to grant unto George James Williams and Francis North, Eſqrs. the office of Receiver-General of all his Majeſty's Revenues within his Colony and Dominion of VIRGINIA.

CHARLES-TOWN: Printed by CHARLES CROUCH, in Elliott-ſtreet.

SUPPLEMENT to the South-Carolina Gazette, and Country Journal.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1772. No. 361. [Printed by CHARLES CROUCH, in Elliott-ſtreet.]

Charles-Town, July 24, 1772.

THE Subſcriber is much obliged to his planting Friends, who, by landing their Crops at his Wharf for three Years paſt, have thereby introduced it to Buſineſs.---He acted as Factor during that Time, purely to prevent his Friends being Sufferers by their intended Kindneſs to him; as it was very induſtriouſly inſinuated, that Rice would not ſell at his Wharf: But as he is now well convinced, and flatters himſelf all his Friends are fully ſo too, that their Crops landed in large or ſmall Parcels, will ſell altogether as well at his Wharf, as at any other in Charles-Town; and that any Gentleman, principally concerned in the Factorage Way, will now have no Objection to receive and ſell Rice or Indico landed thereat: He therefore chooſes to decline that Buſineſs, finding it more than he is able to go through. He hopes his good Friends will ſtill land their Crops at his Wharf, where they may depend he ſhall take Care himſelf that their Boats have all poſſible Diſpatch.

As to the Safety and Convenciency of his Docks and Stores, he is ſure there are none preferable to them in Town in thoſe Reſpects, and few (if any) Barns in the Country are cooler and more ſecure from Fire; and 'tis almoſt impoſſible for a Barrel of Rice to be loſt or ſtolen in Landing or Shipping at his Wharf. Such Gentlemen as uſe his Wharf conſtantly, may depend on never wanting Storage whenever they do not like the going Price;---No prudent Planter but muſt be convinced, that this is a Matter of the utmoſt Conſequence to him, as many, for theſe three Years paſt, have had their Crops (when landed in Town) diſpoſed of very much againſt their own Inclinations and Judgments, merely for Want of Storage; and this he is ſure has been the Caſe, particularly this Year ſeveral Times, notwithſtanding the Shortneſs of the Crop.

Meſſrs. GIBBES & HORT,

Who have had long Experience in the FACTORAGE BUSINESS in all its Branches, and confine themſelves to that only, have taken the Charge of his Scales, and will tranſact their Buſineſs on his Wharf.---To theſe Gentlemen he begs Leave to recommend ſuch of his Friends who are not otherwiſe engaged.

Chriſtopher Gadſden.

N. B. Any Gentlemen in Trade may depend on not wanting STORAGE for ſuch Parcels of Rice as they purchaſe at his Wharf.

GIBBES & HORT,

ACQUAINT THEIR FRIENDS,

THAT they continue the FACTORAGE BUSINESS in all its Branches, (on the uſual Terms) and for the Conveniency of good Storage, will tranſact it on Captain GADSDEN's Wharf, where they deſire thoſe of their Friends that it may be agreeable to, will Order ſuch Goods as they ſhall direct to their Care, being convinced that they will ſell as well there as at any other Place in Charles-Town. Conſtant Attendance will alſo be given at their other COMPTING-HOUSE on the Bay.---Their Friends will be ſupplied with proper Boats, agreeable to their Orders; and they hope to merit a Continuance of their Favors, by a ſteady Attention to their Employers Intereſt, eſpecially as they are determined to confine themſelves to the FACTORAGE BUSINESS only; and they aſſure their Friends that they are not in any wiſe intereſted in Captain GADSDEN's Stores, ſo that whenever they ſhall think it prudent to Store for a better Market, it muſt be ſolely with a View to their Friends Intereſt.

N. B. Wanted to attend on ſaid WHARF, a Perſon well qualified and recommended.

The BREW-HOUSE

CHARLES CROUCH.

Charles Town, October 2, 1771.

THE FIRE-MASTERS, GIVE NOTICE,

THAT, in consequence of the great neglect of many of the inhabitants of Charles-Town, in providing buckets and ladders, keeping their chimnies swept clean, and of observing many other directions, required by the laws now in force, wherein the safety and interest of the whole community are nearly concerned, they are determined to carry the said laws strictly into execution: And that none may plead ignorance, the following abstracts are now published for their information, which the fire-masters request all persons concerned strictly to observe.

GABRIEL MANIGAULT,
GEORGE SHED,
JOHN EDWARDS,
} Fire-Masters.

It is enacted, that no person or persons whatsoever in Charles-Town shall be permitted to keep any straw or hay in his, her, or their dwelling-house or kitchen, or out-house, that is joining to his, her, or their dwelling-house, on the penalty of the forfeiture of ten pounds for every such offence.

It is enacted, that every owner or tenant of every dwelling-house in Charles-Town shall provide a leathern bucket of six quarts at least, for every fire hearth in such dwelling-house, one fourth part of the whole to be sent to the managers of the fire engines; they are also to provide one ladder of a convenient length for each dwelling-house: Which buckets and ladders are to be always ready in case of fire, on pain of forfeiting the sum of ten pounds; also, a penalty of thirty shillings for every bucket withheld, or refused in time of fire, and if any buckets shall be lost at such time, the fire-masters are to supply the owners with others in the room of them.

The charge of providing buckets and ladders is to be borne and paid by the landlords and owners of houses; but as the said charges may be often paid by the tenant in possession, who is made liable in case of neglect, it is lawful for such tenant to deduct so much out of his rent as he shall from time to time expend in providing buckets and ladders.

It shall be lawful for the fire-masters to enter into the houses, out-houses, stables and yards, of every owner or tenant, to enquire if they are provided with buckets and ladders; and also to view, search and examine, if any quantities of hay, straw, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, oil, tallow, sulphurous or combustible matters are lodged in any place within the same, which may be in danger of taking fire; and if they find there is danger, it is lawful for them, after having admonished the owner of such house or houses, to remove such combustible matter (in case of refusing or neglecting to remove the same) at the charge of the owner. All persons who shall suffer their chimnies to take fire, and blaze out at the top, shall forfeit the sum of five pounds.

Upon any alarm in the night time, every inhabitant is to repair to the place where the fire is, with his arms, under the penalty of forty shillings, and shall lodge them in such place, near the fire, as shall be appointed by the fire-masters, and the commander of the watch is to order a party of the watch to guard the same. All goods and effects removed, are directed to be carried to the place where the arms are directed to be lodged and guarded. The constables are to appear with their staves, and assist in guarding the said goods and effects, till removed to some other place of safety, under the penalty of five pounds. Any person that embezzles any goods or effects, are to be pilloried, have their ears cut off, and forfeit four times the value thereof.

The fire-masters are impowered to command any person or persons whatsoever, to aid and assist in pulling down houses or buildings, for extinguishing of fires, to the utmost of their strength, power and ability; and in case of refusal, if a white person, he shall forfeit five pounds, and if a slave, he shall be publicly whipped. All persons who shall do or execute any thing in obedience to the fire-masters, are indemnified against all persons whatsoever.

Remarkable or considerable services, in preventing or extinguishing fires, are to be rewarded by the fire-masters; and in case any person shall be wounded, maimed, or disabled, in endeavouring to prevent or extinguish fire, a reasonable allowance, maintainance, or provision will be made for such persons.

The masters or managers of the engines may command any person or persons whatsoever that shall be nearest at hand, when any fire breaks out, to aid and assist in conveying the engines to the place where the fire shall be. A white person refusing shall forfeit forty shillings, and a slave is to be publicly whipped. A reward of forty shillings to every white person, and twenty shillings to every slave, to be paid to those who carry the first engine to the place where the fire first breaks out.

N. B. Those who have lost buckets, are desired to apply to Mr. MANIGAULT.

BOLSOVER & SHERMAN,

SIMONSON & BROWER.

SEVERAL Chimnies having taken Fire ſince the late cool Weather ſet in, the FIRE MASTERS are ſorry there ſhould be ſo much Reaſon to cenſure the Inhabitants of this Town, for their ſhameful Inattention in a Matter which ſo greatly concerns the Properties, and it may be, the Lives of the People here.---- It is therefore hoped, that all Landlords as well as Maſters of Families, ſhall immediately have their Chimnies well cleaned of Soot, and take Care that they be carefully ſwept, once every Fortnight or three Weeks at fartheſt; for no Excuſe will be accepted in Abatement of the Penalty which the Law has impoſed againſt Defaulters in this Way. Moreover, it is expected, and will be inſiſted on, that all thoſe Chimnies, the Vents of which are ſo narrow, as not to admit a Sweeper, ſhould be pulled down and properly rebuilt. Were People to conſider, how little Engines can avail in Caſe a Fire ſhould happen when the Wind is high, they certainly would be careful to prevent Accidents of this Sort, as far as might be in their Power; for even allowing they had little or no Property of their own to looſe, yet the Duty they owe to their Neighbour, and the Community in general, ought to induce them to guard againſt ſuch diſtreſſing Caſualties, whereby Numbers might be involved in Ruin.---- Further, Joiners, Houſe Carpenters, Cabinet Makers, and others who work in Wood, are hereby cautioned to clear their Shops of Shavings every Evening, and not to allow any Perſon to work either by Fire or Candle-Light, after Dark; for this Town has been often endangered by theſe Means, and almoſt one Half of it was conſumed even in the Middle of the Day, within our own Memory, by making a Fire too near Shavings and other very combuſtible Materials.
